ORDER

The Clerk of Court has now entered default against the defendant for its failure to answer either the complaint or amended complaint in this case or otherwise appear in the matter despite having been served in accordance with the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff has not moved for default judgment against the defendant, however, and such judgment can be entered only at plaintiff's request or application. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b).

Accordingly,

Failure to comply with this Order may result in dismissal of plaintiff's claims against the defendant without prejudice.
